High School News

BHS Valedictorian
Jenny Hardcopf

The BHS Valedictorian for 2011 was announced at the awards banquet Tuesday night. Here we see Jenny receiving one of her many awards. Besides achieving the highest GPA of her class, Jenny was also named outstanding senior in all four of her core classes. She will attend Texas Tech in the fall.

BHS Salutatorian
Katie Mark

Katie Mark, who will attend Dallas Baptist University, was named Salutatorian of BHS 2011 class. She was presented awards as Overall Achiever in Language Arts, top 10% of her class and A honor roll.

Many other awards were presented at the ceremony. Boyd High School can be proud of these accomplished students.

BMS's 8th grade art students, inspired by Claes Oldenburg, created Pop Art sculptures of large scale everyday objects. Students were required to measure their object and use their math skills to create a sculpture at least 3 times bigger. Sculptures were created out of paper mache."

Sculptures:

Dental Floss – Alissa Gordon

Thumb Tack – Michelle Wallace

Scissors – Savannah Foster

Key – Tyler Spain

Seniors, You need to bring Mrs. Hohman 3 to 4 pictures of yourself for the senior slideshow at graduation. Two should be baby pictures and one should be a current photo. You may have brought some photos during registration. However, those files have been lost so we need you to bring the photos again so we can upload them. Mrs. Hohman needs these pictures ASAP. Please see Mrs. Hohman if you have any questions.

A DVD of Boyd's Got Talent show will be available shortly, and proceeds will benefit this year's senior class. Contact Tracy Bown (tbrown@boydisd.net) or Araceli Perez (aperez@boydisd.net) to reserve your copy.
