Yearbooks

There are only 60 yearbooks left for purchase. Unfortunately, once we have sold out, we will not be able to order anymore so be sure to reserve yours today! Yearbooks are $50 and will be here in May. If you have any questions, please contact Mrs. Hohman at the high school.

Solo and Ensemble Contest

The band has its solo and ensemble contest this Saturday, Feb. 19th, in Sanger. Contestants are Danny Ricketts, Nathan Phillips, German Barcenos, Mower Smith, Shane Culver, Austin Culver, Matt Brown, and Goretty Romeroin. Watch this space next week for results.

Project Graduation

Seniors make plans to pay the remaining balance on your dues for project graduation. Dues must be paid by March 31st in order to attend the party at Main Event.

Swim Team Results

Jake Bryans placed 2nd at district and 4th at regional's in last week's swim competition. Congratulations Jake!!!

District FFA Meeting

On Monday, Feb. 21 we will be hosting a district wide FFA meeting, officer election, and talent contest here at our high school. Our district includes schools from Wise, Montague, and Cooke counties.

Theatre Class

Do you have any unwanted clothing, furniture, or décor? Instead of throwing it out, give your unwanted items to a good cause—donate them to Boyd HS/MS Theatre! Please contact Ms. McDonald at

Boyd Elementary School News

Jump Rope for Heart

Boyd Elementary students participated in the nationwide Jump Rope for Heart campaign, Friday, February 11, 2011. Over 300 students participated by jumping rope their entire P.E. class period. Students collected donations from family and friends for Jump Rope for Heart, raising over $2,000.00, which will be given to the American Heart Association to help in their fight against heart disease. Great job students and parents. Together we are making a difference!
